Dear Madams:-

In conversation a few days ago with my good friend, Mr. D. R. Beatty, he informed me that you had had some unpleasantness with one of our bookkeepers in regard to making an adjustment or correction in your account and that you were not now giving our establishment the benefit of any of your esteemed patronage, and I write to say that I am very much pained to know this to be a fact. I can't imagine who in the world we could have in our employ who would even argue with a customer, much less not be willing to go out of their way to please anyone, and I wish to extend to you ladies a most cordial invitation to call at our place the first time you are in the city and allow me to get this matter adjusted to your entire satisfaction.

It is needless for me to say that we are in a position to serve you good people of Harris County just as advantageously as any one in Texas, and I am sure that there is no one who appreciates your business more and strives harder to please you than ourselves. Am sorry indeed that you did not refer this matter immediately to the writer or our General Manager, Mr. John H. Hill, who is always on the floor and takes great pains to see that everyone is pleased and treated right.

Now ladies I am asking you to give W. C. MUNN COMPANY an opportunity to redeem themselves in your estimation and to demonstrate to you that we can and will serve you as well or better than any one. Would be glad to have you meet our General Manager, Mr. Hill, as well as the writer so that you will have no hesitancy in referring any matter to either of our attentions. Wishing you the compliments of the season, I beg to remain,

Yours respectfully

W.C. Munn
President
