1980 UH Invitational

Houston defeated Southwest Missouri State in three straight 15-9, 15-6, 15-7 to win the 14th annual UH Invitational. It was the first Cougar victory in the tournament since 1976. The weekend before Houston lost to the Bears at the Southwest Missouri Fall Classic for second place.

Texas-Arlington beat Texas Tech 15-9, 15-10 for third place.

Houston's Rose Magers was named to the all-tournament team along with teammate Pattie Richard. Magers was also chosen as the tournament's most valuable player and best spiker. Richard was selected as the best setter. Other all-tournament team honors went to Debbie Allin of Southwest Missouri State, Theresa Noggler of Texas-Arlington, Connie Pittman of Texas Tech and Deb Stamm of Illinois State.
