FOR WESTIN HOTELS CORPORATE OFFICE EMPLOYEES

JULY 26, 1984

PICNIC IN THE PARK

You are invited to the Annual Employee Picnic.

It's being held at Lincoln Park (West Seattle) Shelter #5.

The date is Sat., Sept. 8. And the time is 10 am to 5 pm.

Bring yourself. Bring your spouse. Bring the kids. There's going to be fun, games and food for everyone. And, if none of this suits your fancy, come anyway for a chance at the GRAND PRIZE drawing.

If you would like to volunteer to lend a hand in the festivities, pick a committee from the list below and offer your services by calling the committee head listed:

- Food Committee: John Olafson, X5026
- Prizes Committee: Reed Sehon, X3157
- Children's Games: Edith Ford, "O"
- Adult Games: Walker Williams, X8901

All of these people could use your help—just pick your committee and call.

AND A CHILI COOK-OFF?

Chili chefs and those who aspire to be, here's your chance to set the world on fire with your very own original chili recipe. If enough interest is shown, the picnic committee would like to feature a chili cook-off at the employee picnic. They're calling it the "Anything Goes But Canned Chili Cook-Off".

There will be judging and prizes just like the big-time events. All they request is that yours be an original recipe, that you make a minimum of two quarts and that you bring it to the picnic pre-cooked. There will be warmers provided to re-heat at the picnic grounds. If you're interested in taking a stab at Chili Hall Of Fame immortality, call Carolyn Stear on X5055 and tell her you're on. (P.S. Beans optional.)

HEY, HEY... I THINK WE GOT OURSELVES A 'WINNAH'!

BEAT THE BRIDGE IS BACK

For the second year in a row, Westin is sponsoring a running team for Nordstrom's "Beat the Bridge" 10 K run benefitting the Junior Diabetes Association. The race is set for Sunday, September 9. The 6.2 mile course runs through the lower University and Montlake areas.

Homefront

Last year, Westin Hotels sponsored one of the largest corporate running teams for the race, and this year we are looking for an even larger turnout. Although we have a September 1 entry deadline, we would like to get organized early. As an added incentive, here's an offer you can't refuse: If you sign up before August 17, you will receive a FREE "Westin Running Team" T-shirt!

Interested? You can join the winning Westin team by contacting Debi Briest (X8906) or Steve Malcolm (X6516) for your free shirt and the best fun-run of the season.

CLASSIC - A WHACKING SUCCESS

The good times rolled - along with a number of misdirected balls - during the 14th Annual Westin Golf Classic held at the Mt. Si Golf Course on Sunday, July 22. Almost 70 would-be Arnie Palmers and Kathy Wentworths from the corporate offices and The Westin Hotel turned out for the event. The corporate offices Employee Council provided refreshments and "starter kits" (Westin visors, golf balls and tees); Discoveries provided the prizes which ranged from T-shirts and sweaters to tote bags and travel toiletry kits; The Westin Hotel provided the eats, and the weatherman (with some upstairs help) provided for the perfect blue-sky day.

The closest Arnie Palmer clone was VP Jack Gaines, who won the top prize (wallet with calculator) for his low net and low gross scores.

Other low net winners (Men): Warren Sakai, Jim Jenkins, Rick Layton (visiting from The Westin St. Francis) and Duane Knapp.

Low net winners (Women): Rita Agnew and Jeanine Dunbar.

Closest to the pin (Men - 3rd hole): Todd Ostrand and Jim Pope.

Closest to the pin (Women - 12th hole): Susan MacLeod and Sharon Detloff.

Closest to the pin (Men - 12th hole): Ralph Van Noy and Chuck Agnew.

Closest to the pin (Men - 16th hole): Jeff Nealy, Ralph Van Noy and Rick Jones.

Closest to the "19th hole" - Nearly everybody!

Says Jim Kennedy, chairperson for this year's Classic, "Everybody had a really great time, and in spite of our having to put it all together in just three weeks, it turned out to be a great success with an excellent turnout." Assisting Kennedy as committee members were Bob Jenness and Duane Knapp.

NOW KIRO IS DOING IT

A few weeks ago, KOMO-TV's "Weeknight Show" featured a segment on Westin as one of the Northwest companies to be included in the book, "The 100 Best Companies to Work for in America." Now KIRO is doing a similar bit as a feature segment on their 11 p.m. news program. No date has been established, but the segment will be broadcast one night during the week of July 30-August 3. The film includes interviews with employees of The Westin Seattle as well as with Harry Mullikin. Also footage taken earlier of The Westin Chosun, Seoul will be shown.

If that news slot is past your bed time, you'll still have a chance to see it. The PR folks are having it taped for viewing the following week in the Board Room on 15. Times will be Wednesday, August 8 at 2 p.m. and 3 p.m. Also on Thursday, August 9 at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. Showings will take four or five minutes at the most. Also, for those who missed the KOMO segment, it will also be shown following the KIRO tape.

If you plan to go, please call Carolyn Stear (X5055) and reserve your time. Room capacity for each viewing is limited.

JUST 25 MORE WILL MAKE IT

Barb Ogle reports that 25 people have signed up for Blood Bank donations. That's not quite enough to bring in a Blood Bank unit to the Westin Building. They require a minimum of 50 donors. So, here goes with one more appeal. Do it. It's safe. It's virtually painless. And the need is great! Call Carolyn Stear (X5055) and say "Yes!" Right now. While you're mulling it over. Yes? (P.S. You also get a free cookie!)

NO, NOT MY SWISS CHARD!

First, it was the case of the missing lunches from the cooler in Harry's. Now there have been reports of missing groceries. Evidently some employees who've popped down to the Market at noon for meat, fish, or vegies for the dinner table and placed the items in the cooler til take-home time, had later discovered there was nothing to take home. Sad to say, somebody got there first. That's why the new sign on the cooler door.

And those incidents had nothing to do with another sign on the cooler door - by way of a reminder - which notes that anything remaining in the cooler after 4 p.m. Friday's, when the unit is being cleaned, will be tossed.

AND A WHOLE LOTTA' THINGS

* Smoke, if you wish, but please not in the elevators (that's a city ordinance), and not in the stairwells. There's no ordinance regarding the stairwells, but there is a litter problem of ground out cigarette butts. Messy, messy.

* The new Summer Issue of Discoveries catalogue is hot off the press and copies will be on their way to you sometime next week. Some new and interesting items and a new supplier, Monarch of New Zealand. Monarch features lightweight lambsuede and lamb shearling apparel along with washable lambskin rugs and auto seatcovers. Classy stuff.

* Changed your name? Moved? Let your voter registration elapse? Have no fear...you can still exercise your right to vote in the upcoming presidential election. Within the next few days, the corporate personnel department will be distributing to all employees a Voter Information pamphlet which should answer your voter registration questions.
