News Bulletin

**PLEASE POST**

September 26, 1994

I am pleased to announce that six Westin hotels and resorts have been awarded Corporate & Incentive Travel magazine's "Award of Excellence" for 1994. Westin winners include The Westin Hotel, Copley Place in Boston; The Westin Resort, Hilton Head Island; The Plaza in New York; The Westin Mission Hills Resort in Rancho Mirage; The Westin La Paloma in Tucson; and the Walt Disney World Swan in Orlando.

Properties chosen to receive this coveted honor were selected by the magazine's subscribers who voted for the hotel, resort or conference center that best serviced their corporate meetings and incentive programs during the past year. Categories included outstanding service by staff, superior accommodations and meeting facilities, trouble-free food and beverage functions, smooth set-ups and arrangements for social functions, exceptional ambiance, and convenient and accessible location.

Please join me in congratulating the staffs of these properties for their outstanding achievement.
